

My Name isSchool Year Group

Stay safe only go Angel Hunting with a grown up family member.

Have fun and be respectful of the hosting shopkeepers

Have a wonderful Christmas !

Angel 1: You'll find this Angel is just what the doctor prescribed

Angel's name

Angel 2: This Angel can be found among the things we no longer need, but her name isn't Debbie

Angel's name

Angel 3: Will we find Angel footprints in the icing sugar at this Special shop?

Angel's name

Angel 4: This Angel is in an Express, where Every Little Helps

Angel's name

Angel 5: Hickory Dickory Dock, the Angel ran up the clock in this shop while waiting for it to be repaired

Angel's name

Angel 6: This shop's name is a 5 sided shape and has lots of places for our Angel to hide..hope she doesn't get wet!

Angel's name

Angel 7: Amongst the pre-loved furniture, this Angel is hosted by those in Woking providing care for the sick

Angel's name

Angel 8: While hunting this Angel, don't get in a spin, look for somewhere you can find the names Beko, Bosch or Dyson

Angel's name

Angel 9: A hop Skip and a jump to the very top of the hill will find our Angel watching Jill's brother serving fish

Angel's name

Angel 10: It may be a sign of The Times, but I think the Angel here may have a sweet tooth

Angel's name

Angel 11: Pat a cake or sip a coffee in the Crescent while you search for Angel number 11

Angel's name

Angel 12: Will you find this Angel in the kitchen or at a table having her breakfast or lunch?

Angel's name

Well done, you've 'caught 'em all'. Now post this form into the AngelStop in your school's reception

Good luck!